Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Timber Lake was founded seventy-five years ago and named for the nearby lake which, according to Sioux legend, was named as the result of a battle between a band of Sioux and a band of invading Minnesota Indians. With night approaching, the invaders sighted the lake and, mistaking a tall growth of grass for trees, shouted, "Timber! Timber!" The Sioux, now fully cognizant of the enemy's position, promptly set fire to the grass and drove the invaders out; and,

WHEREAS, On December 10, 1910, Dewey County was organized and Timber Lake was chosen as the county seat; barely six months later, Timber Lake won the United States Land Office on May 1, 1911; and on June 15, 1915, Timber Lake became the first reservation town to have Rural Federal Delivery--Timber Lake was on its way; and,

WHEREAS, Since the early days of $2.50 homesteads and gritty pioneers, Timber Lake has continued to thrive and prosper; and,

WHEREAS, The people of Timber Lake are planning a four-day celebration in honor of their community's seventy-fifth birthday; and,

WHEREAS, It is fitting and proper for the Governor to make note of the major milestones in South Dakota's communities:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim July 25-28, 1985, as in South Dakota, and I join the citizenry of Timber Lake and the people of the larger community of South Dakota in congratulating Timber Lake on its first seventy-five years and in wishing the community a prosperous, vital future.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Sixteenth Day of July, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Five

William J. Janklow
